Best Best & Krieger LLP Partner Kurt Barker's practice emphasizes the counsel and defense of clients in most all employment-related matters, including discrimination, harassment, wage and hour, tort, noncompete enforcement and trade secret obligations. Kurt also serves as Co-Chair of the firm's Labor & Employment practice group.

He frequently lectures on employment law topics around the state and has been featured at the Oregon Bureau of Labor and Industries Annual Conference. Kurt also thrives on conducting trainings for managers and employees on topics such as anti-harassment, medical leave and more.

Litigation and Fiduciary Disputes

In addition to representing employers, Kurt's practice involves representing clients in a variety of other disputes in both state and federal courts. His experience includes a variety of fiduciary, will and trust-related litigation, as well as disputes between businesses and business partners.

Intellectual Property

Kurt handles a variety of competition and trade secret disputes. He also counsels clients on their intellectual property protection strategy and works with clients to enforce those rights.

Before moving to Bend, Kurt practiced employment law with Stoel Rives LLP in Portland, Oregon where
