Holland Stewart is a Partner in Best Best & Krieger LLP's (BBK) Special Districts practice group. He assists a variety of public and private clients with all aspects of their business and environmental matters. Holland has experience litigating numerous corporate, eminent domain and environmental cases, including groundwater issues under the Sustainable Groundwater Management Act, charter school financial reporting for the Riverside County Office of Education, and railroad and Native American land use questions for the Coachella Valley Association of Governments.

Holland serves as general counsel to the San Geronio Pass Water Agency, Water Facilities Authority, Chino Valley Fire District, and Arrowhead Lake Association and deputy general counsel to the Western Municipal Water District, Desert Water Agency, Jurupa Community Services District, and Crestline-Lake Arrowhead Water Agency. He also serves as chair of the firm's Recruiting Committee.

Holland joined BBK as a summer associate in 2016 and then again as an associate after graduation. He is involved in the Inland Empire Latino Lawyers Association, which named him "Attorney of the Year" in 2019 and the "Lawyer Who Leads By Example" in 2021. Holland graduated from Emory University School of Law in Atlanta, Georgia. During law school, Holland served as a legal intern for the U.S. Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division, in Washington, D.C., and worked on a farm in Conyers, Georgia.
