Gregory Mikhanjian is an associate and member of Best Best & Krieger's (BBK) Litigation and Municipal Law practice groups. He provides assistance on legal research and writing focusing on a variety of matters related to both municipal governments and private clients.

Greg started at the firm as a summer associate. While in law school, he served as a judicial extern to the late Hon. Theodor C. Albert, Chief Judge of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Central District of California. Greg was also a legal intern at the City of Santa Ana City Attorney's Office, and served as the Executive Program Editor of the Chapman Law Review.

Outside of the office, Greg enjoys playing basketball, reading, and watching movies.
