📍 Los Angeles

Errin Lacy provides support to the Education Law practice group of Best Best & Krieger LLP, focusing primarily on assisting the firm's Special Education attorneys and their school district clients. She mainly works on reviewing district records and providing primary case analysis to help the attorneys prepare for special education due process matters. Errin also conducts background research as needed on legal developments and other topics specific to special education laws.

Prior to joining BBK, Errin has experience working at a non-public school in a therapeutic setting, and providing support to attorneys conducting internal investigations. Errin also has a multi-disciplinary employment background, with previous experience in facilities management, corporate training, and small business ownership.

Paralegals are not licensed attorneys. Under California law, paralegals are not authorized to provide legal advice.*
