📍 Indian Wells

Henry Welles handles complex litigation matters with an emphasis on trusts and estates, intellectual property and general business law. Henry is a partner in Best Best & Krieger LLP's Indian Wells office. He handles all stages of litigation through trial, as well as arbitration and mediation. When possible, he helps clients anticipate and resolve problems before they reach the court system.

Trusts and Estates Litigation

Henry represents clients in various trust and estate matters, including extensive experience in will and trust contest litigation, financial elder abuse litigation, physical elder abuse litigation, fiduciary litigation, conservatorships, probate administration, and trust administration and accountings.

Intellectual Property

Henry's intellectual property practice involves trademark, copyright, and trade secret protection and intellectual property infringement litigation in federal and state courts. Henry also assists with intellectual property protection such as trademark registrations.

Business and Contract Disputes

Henry assists businesses with a wide variety of matters, including contract litigation, trust and probate disputes, real estate related matters, and other business litigation matters.
