Lutfi Kharuf is a partner in the Special Districts and Public Finance practice groups of Best Best & Krieger LLP. Lutfi works with public agencies on compliance with constitutional and statutory limitations on imposing fees, charges and taxes, including Proposition 218 and Proposition 26. In this capacity, Lutfi assists public agencies with adopting new and increased fees, charges, assessments and taxes, as well as forming community facilities districts and assessment districts. Lutfi serves public agencies all over California, as well as across the country, from BBK's San Diego office. Lutfi serves as chair of the firm's Recruiting Committee, as well as the chair of the Municipal Finance Committee of the California League of Cities. Lutfi also sits on the Legal Affairs Committee for the Association of California Water Agencies (ACWA), where he works to achieve impactful legislative and judicial results on matters of statewide concern involving Proposition 218, Proposition 26, and protecting water agency revenues.

Prior to joining BBK, Lutfi worked as bond, disclosure, and issuer's counsel to cities, special districts and other public agencies in California. Lutfi has experience advising clients on complex tax, securities and constitutional issues arising out of public finance transactions. Lutfi previously worked in the corporate and finance group of an international law firm in Frankfurt, Germany.

While earning his law degree from the University of Southern California Gould School of Law, Lutfi was a member of the Hale Moot Court Honors Program. After completing law school, Lutfi received his master of law in finance from the Goethe-Universitat Frankfurt am Main, Institute for Law and Finance, in Frankfurt, Germany.
