Nicolas Papajohn is a member of Best Best & Krieger's (BBK) Municipal Law practice group. He advises cities and other public agencies on a wide variety of municipal law issues, including Land Use, Planning & Zoning, the Brown Act, the Public Records Act, and the Political Reform Act. Nick enjoys working with public clients on a daily basis and helping them navigate complex and ever-evolving legal issues impacting local government.

Nick has dedicated his entire legal career to representing public agencies. Prior to joining BBK, Nick was a senior associate at a California-based municipal law firm, where he represented cities and special districts throughout the State. He also gained valuable experience previously working in-house as legal counsel for an Orange County public agency.

Born and raised in Orange County, Nick and his wife live in Irvine with their daughters. In his spare time, Nick enjoys woodworking, stand-up paddleboarding, and movie nights with his family.
