Brigitte Sandoval is a paralegal in Best Best & Krieger's Municipal Law Practice Group, serving Best Best & Krieger LLP's ARC: Advanced Records Center. Her work is specific to the examination and production of documents for Public Records Act requests.

Prior to joining BBK, Brigitte worked for the San Mateo County District Attorney's Office supporting Deputy District Attorney's in various units and at a Probate/Estate Planning Law Firm aiding case preparations. During college, she interned with AmeriCorps rendering high quality services to the California Superior Court Family Law Facilitator's Office. Brigitte is known for her professionalism, dependability and heart for service.

Brigitte is an active community servant, she volunteers as a Facilitator mentoring Bay Area High School Students and serves in the Leadership Team for the Young Adults in her church. She enjoys exploring the outdoors, whether it's hiking a scenic trail or getting lost in a new city. Brigitte finds joy in the little moments that become lasting memories.
