Hannah is a Partner in Best Best & Krieger LLP's Environmental Law & Natural Resources practice group. She counsels public agencies and private developers under complex state and federal environmental laws, with a particular focus on the California Environmental Quality Act and National Environmental Policy Act.

Prior to joining BBK, Hannah advised and assisted public agencies on various local and state laws in the areas of charter school and environmental law. She also has broad litigation experience, directly handling cases from inception through trial.

Hannah earned her law degree from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law, where she completed externships with the Department of Justice and Department of Labor.

Hannah grew up in Orange County, where she now lives with her husband. Hannah is admitted to the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California.
