Best Best & Krieger LLP (BBK) Of Counsel Lauren Rose is a member of the firm's Municipal Law practice. A seasoned litigation attorney, Lauren leverages her skills both inside and outside the courtroom to protect the interests and advance the business goals of her municipal clients.

Immediately prior to joining BBK, Lauren was the deputy city attorney for Huntington Beach. In that role, she represented the city and its employees in both state and federal courts in a range of legal matters, including civil rights, employment, premises liability and contractual disputes. Lauren also gained significant insurance industry experience with two other California-based law firms, where she represented clients in catastrophic injury cases and managed all litigated and non-litigated legal matters as in-house counsel for a U.S.-based global insurer.

Originally from Colorado, Lauren lives in Irvine with her husband, daughter and dachshund. She loves skiing, all things outdoors and Colorado sports.
