Bianca Carvajal is a litigation associate in Best Best & Krieger LLP's Business practice group. Bianca is a zealous advocate for clients in California state and federal courts. She focuses on assisting both public and private clients in their business disputes and litigation matters.

Before joining BB&K, Bianca was a litigation associate with Wood, Smith, Henning & Berman LLP and primarily represented businesses in complex tort and casualty, commercial and business, and personal injury matters.

Bianca graduated magna cum laude from the University of La Verne College of Law. While in law school, Bianca enjoyed serving as the chief articles editor for the La Verne Law Review and the president of the Latino Law Students Association. She also interned at the Immigration Center for Women and Children and the Alliance for Children's Rights.

Bianca is admitted to the U.S. District Court for the Central and Southern districts of California.

Bianca grew up in Glendora. In her spare time, she enjoys spending quality time with her loved ones, yoga and concerts.
