Evelyn Blanco is an associate and a member of Best Best & Krieger's LLP (BBK) Municipal practice group. She has experience in personal injury and employment law, developing skills in litigation and a strong understanding of client needs. Prior to joining BBK, Evelyn was an associate at a large firm assisting on complex commercial litigation matters, including antitrust, healthcare-related claims, and multidistrict tort litigation.

During law school Evelyn was involved in the Wrongful Convictions Clinic, assisting in a case that resulted in a client's exoneration. She also represented families in the Children's Law Clinic, focusing on education law and compliance with applicable disability laws. In her last year of law school, she moved to Washington D.C., where she had a full-time externship at the D.C. Office of the Attorney General, Anti-Trust and Nonprofit Enforcement Section.

Evelyn and her fiancé live in Apple Valley along with their two Xoloitzcuintle dogs, Raider and Roxy. She likes to spend her time cooking foods from global cuisines with a vegan flair.
