📍 Sacramento

Brittany Bruce is a lead paralegal in Best Best & Krieger's ARC: Advanced Records Center, assisting municipalities and other governmental agencies across the State of California in navigating complex California Public Records Act requests, both large and small. Under the supervision of attorneys, Brittany works closely with clients to assist in the scope of searches and disclosures of responsive public records.

Prior to joining BBK, Brittany worked as a paralegal at the City Attorney's Office in the City of Stockton. The areas she focused on at the City Attorney's office included all aspects of civil litigation support and Public Records Act requests. She also served as a liaison between the City and outside counsel, as well as with the City's Joint Powers Authority. With more than 18 years of experience in the legal field, Brittany brings a broad range of experience to BBK.

Aside from work, Brittany enjoys spending time with her husband and two young boys on their country property in Northern California.

Paralegals are not licensed attorneys. Under California law, paralegals are not authorized to provide legal advice.*
