Shannon Anglin is a municipal analyst at Best Best & Krieger LLP. Drawing from a strong background in commercial real estate and escrow, coupled with her role as a commissioned Notary Public, Shannon specializes in supporting attorneys on civil litigation matters, particularly in business real property-related disputes. Her work caters to the needs of both private and public clients, with a focus on transactional real estate matters. Under attorney supervision, Shannon assists buyers, sellers, landlords, tenants, and developers of real property, providing essential support in negotiating, structuring, and documenting transactions. She also handles eminent domain cases, collaborating closely with the firm's municipal and public agency clients.

As a municipal analyst, Shannon Anglin does not provide legal representation or advice for or to our clients.*
