Natalie Nilan is a member of Best Best & Krieger's (BBK) Municipal Law practice group. She advises cities and public agencies on a range of municipal, code enforcement, and constitutional law matters. Natalie has experience prosecuting a variety of criminal and civil nuisance cases on behalf of public entities, and defending them in constitutional law, civil rights, and premises liability litigation.

Before joining BBK, Natalie worked as a Law Clerk in a Criminal Defense office, handling misdemeanor and felony cases. She prepared for preliminary hearings, conducted research for bail and suppression hearings, drafted mitigation briefs and sentencing memos for State and Federal Court, and summarized various types of discovery.

Natalie is an adventure seeker who loves the sun and the water. She previously worked for the City of Huntington Beach as an ocean lifeguard and has been cage diving with great white sharks in South Africa and skydiving in Hawaii.
