📍 Washington, D.C.

Assistant Director of Government Affairs Madeline Voitier brings her experience with government relations, public policy, legal and regulatory research, and program management to clients involved with and affected by environmental and water policy issues.

Before joining Best Best & Krieger LLP (BBK), Madeline worked for the Association of California Water Agencies (ACWA) where she advocated for ACWA's policy priorities and served as regulatory subject matter expert with a focus on drinking water issues. Prior to joining ACWA, Madeline worked at several environmentally focused nonprofits where she gained experience in regulatory and legislative analysis as well as developing and implementing public policy programs in environmental science and design.

Madeline is a Louisiana native (Geaux Tigers!) and currently lives in Washington DC. In her free time, she enjoys traveling, reading, and scuba diving when she gets the chance.
