Shauna Amon is a member of BBK's Labor & Employment Law practice group and assists her clients in the areas of advice and counsel, labor negotiations and bargaining as well as conducting personnel investigations. For personnel investigations, Shauna regularly conducts thorough, impartial and timely investigations for a variety of private and public agency clients, including K-12 school districts and post-secondary institutions, in the area of both personnel and student complaints. She routinely advises her clients in the areas of harassment and discrimination, medical leaves, and wage laws.

Shauna participates as a speaker in labor and employment seminars, speaking mainly on issues of personnel management. Shauna also regularly conducts seminars and mandatory harassment avoidance trainings for both supervisors and non-supervisors.

While attending law school, Shauna was a law clerk at the Chula Vista City Attorney's Office, an intern at the United States Attorney's Office Southern District of California and an extern for U.S. Magistrate Judge for the Southern District of California Ruben B. Brooks.
