Golsima Hagen is an experienced attorney with over seven years of practice dedicated solely to estate planning and estate administration. She advises clients on creating comprehensive estate plans, including wills, trusts, and financial and medical power of attorneys, and provides trusted guidance through the probate and trust administration process. She is committed to delivering thoughtful, effective solutions that protect client assets, minimize tax exposure, and honor individual and family goals with care and professionalism. Golsima has been named to the Oregon Super Lawyers Rising Stars list for 2024.

Golsima is of counsel working from the Bend office of Best Best & Krieger LLP. Before joining BBK, Golsima was a shareholder at Hurley Re, P.C., where she assisted clients with their estate planning and estate administration needs.

Golsima is a member of the Oregon State Bar Estate Planning & Administration Section, Oregon Estate Bar Taxation Regulation Section, Deschutes County Bar Association, Oregon Women Lawyers and Cascade Women Lawyers. Golsima also served on the board of the Humane Society of Central Oregon and leadership counsel of Start Making a Reader Today (SMART).

Golsima's other interests include hiking, whitewater rafting and snowboarding.
